

Survey on AI Mental Health Support App

Thank you for participating in this survey!

We are a group of students at TH Köln conducting a Requirements Engineering project. Our goal is to develop an AI-assisted mental health support application designed to help university students manage stress, burnout, exam anxiety, and other everyday mental health challenges.

The purpose of this survey is to better understand students' needs, preferences, and expectations regarding such an application. Your responses will help us identify the most valuable features and requirements for the system.

The survey takes approximately 3–5 minutes to complete. Your participation is voluntary, and all responses will be anonymous and used solely for academic purposes.

Thank you for your valuable time and feedback!

By continuing with this survey, you confirm that you are at least 18 years old (or otherwise able to provide consent), that your participation is voluntary, and that you understand your responses will be collected anonymously and used only for this university project.
